

NORTHWEST YOUTH LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

Dear Military Order of the World Wars,

I would like to thank you for letting me have this opportunity to be a part of this conference. One of the things that I learned was how to treat everyone with equal respect even though you might not like them. Another aspect of leadership I worked on more was patience and trust; which was something I lacked as a leader. Also I learned how to build stronger relationships with others and remembering the trust behaviors; Purpose, Roles, Core Processes, Communication & Interpersonal Dynamics.

A great memory I'll never forget was when multiple groups at first worked together in their own groups with 2 by 4s and milk crates. My group was starting lose hope because we thought we were going to be last. The reason why we thought we were going to be last was because other teams started to steal our equipment. After a while the winning teams started to work together and helped the rest of my group across the lawn. It was when we all reached to the otherside that the whole point of the activity was for everyone to work together as a whole. Which I think was a good moment because everyone was cheering for one another and supporting each other.

Again, I can't thank you enough for letting me attend this conference.

Sincerely,

Diana Ramirez

NORTHWEST YOUTH LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

My

To the MOWW Puget Sound Chapter,
I would like to thank the organization for how greatful
I am to be given the opportunity to attend this wonderful camp.
This is my first time at the NWYLC but what I've experienced so far makes me want to run back here to be a counselor.
The chance to learn great leadership skills from outstanding figures will not only improve my character in the short term but it will help me be the best I can be in the long term. In addition, the friends I've made so far has made me so happy! There are so many cool people here who I wish to stay in contact with in the future.
The leadership skills I've learned have been things I haven't learned before such as utilizing all subordinates, and making them know that they matter. Or how communication is key to everything. Before this camp, I was good communicating only via texts. But this camp has given me the confidence to speak verbally, with things like tactical communication and speaking in the workplace. Being at this camp this week has allowed me to open up and take on so many leadership challenges. I love it so much here as it has raised my spirits so much. Since last week was terrible. Also thank you! You have revived and increased my interest in Military Service again. The trip to Orchard Air Force Base to see the C-17 has been so much fun.
It has been an honor to be here. I will not let these teachings go to waste and I'll achieve my goal of getting the NROTC Scholarship. Thank You MOWW!

Respectfully,
Nathaniel "Nathan" Slavitz
cell - 253-656-1771

NORTHWEST
YOUTH LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

Dear MOWWW Puget sound chapter, Thank you for this great opportunity. In the four days I have been here, I have learned a great deal about leadership and teamwork, so I am very grateful to you for sponsoring me. This will be very useful when I lead my classmates at JROTC and help them learn the same great things I learned at NWLC.

Sincerely, Devran Tuncer

NORTHWEST YOUTH LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

Military Order of The World Wars
— Puget Sound Chapter —

Dear members of the Military Order of The World Wars Puget Sound Division, thank You so much for the great opportunity you have blessed me with to go to the Northwest Youth Leadership Conference. This camp has been such a great learning experience and inspiration to me. Whether it was being led around campus blindfolded, jumping across the yard in a milk crate, or building towers with shoes, the team building and bonding have been enjoyable and enlightening, and taught me so many lessons in leadership and active group work. From this camp I learned that life is a team game and that no leader's education is ever complete.

In my wonderful group I found the inspiration I came to this camp looking for. As I now sit at a table with seven teenagers who had no idea how to communicate just days ago, we find ourselves comfortable, happy, safe, and relaxed in each other's company. I deeply appreciate this experience you have given me, and I will do my best to pay your kindness forward in society.

Very Respectfully,

Caiden Bird